

Corporate Mergers and Acquisitions

Trenam Law's corporate attorneys represent numerous public and private enterprises, financial institutions, private equity and investment funds, and portfolio companies in connection with all phases of mergers and acquisitions, from initial structuring through closing. We represent both sellers and purchasers, and our work spans mergers, stock and asset purchases and dispositions, as well as other transactions that transfer business interests, including joint ventures of all types. We are able to draw upon the experience of our attorneys in other practice areas as well in all phases of the transaction, including employment, real estate, litigation, intellectual property due diligence and advice, tax structuring, and other necessary areas to support our clients and the particular transaction. Our multi-disciplinary team allows us to respond to our client needs in a practical, cost-effective and comprehensive way.
