

Anticipating, Prosecuting, and Defending Lawsuits In and Out of Court

When business disputes arise, you want to protect your business and financial interests while resolving issues quickly so you can get back to doing what you do well: running your company.

Litigation can become complex and expensive for your business. Trenam attorneys act as your trusted legal advisors to preemptively anticipate disputes to safeguard your assets, and structure your unique contractual obligations and other business relationships in order to minimize risk and avoid litigation. When defending or pursuing a lawsuit or quasi-judicial proceeding becomes necessary, we are your fierce advocates in the courtroom. We use our deep understanding of your business to pursue the best legal strategy for your business goals – whether negotiating a quick settlement, litigating a case to conclusion, or some alternative resolution. And should litigation result in an unfavorable outcome or a favorable judgment is challenged, Trenam's Appellate Law Group combines the firm's litigation skills and knowledge of substantive law with the unique laws, rules, and procedures governing appeals proceedings to provide our clients with appellate expertise in every phase of litigation, both civil and criminal.

No matter the size of your business, with hundreds of collective years representing Fortune 100 companies, mid-size companies, small start-ups, individuals, cities, school boards, universities, and other governmental entities on a wide range of issues in both state and federal courts as well as in mediation and arbitration, Trenam attorneys have the experience you need.
