Overview

Devin X. Dudley is an associate in the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice Group. Devin is experienced in arguing motions, attending hearings, assisting in mediation and trial preparation and participating in depositions. He has worked on matters in the areas of medical products liability, non-disclosure and non-compete employment agreements, receivership, corporate dissolution, commercial property foreclose, trade secrets, and commercial contract disputes.

During law school, Devin served as a Certified Legal Intern for the Office of the State Attorney, 6th Judicial Circuit in Clearwater, FL. As an intern, he gained invaluable experience with the criminal justice system by participating in bench trials, arguing motions, and making filing decisions. He has also served as an intern to the Honorable Cory J. Ciklin in the Fourth District Court of Appeals in West Palm Beach, FL.
